Declares Lydia E. Pinkham's Vege-

Medicine for Girls and Women

Hamilton, Ohio.—"I had such awful pains in my back I could hardly stand on my feet and I was never without a headache. If I walked up town I thought I would drop and many a time I felt so bad I had to go to bed and I was not able to do much of my housework. I would have hemorrhages every two weeks and dragging-down pains. I had been feeling badly for three years and had two of the best doctors in the city, but I kept getting worse and only weighed 125 pounds. I saw your advertisement and I took eight boxes of Lydia E. Pinkham's
Vegetable Compound
Tablets, four bottles
Lydia E. Pinkham's
Blood Medicine and your Liver Pills and noticed an improvement right away. Now I weigh 158 pounds and feel fine. Everybody tells me how well I look and asks me what I took and I always say, 'Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,
the best medicine in the world for any sickness to which girls and women are subject.'
I will always have a good word for your medicine."

Merchants in 22 Autos
Advertise "Dollar
Day" Sale.

THE HERALD BUREAU.
A. S. Doniphan,
737 King Street.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Aug. 12.— About sixty merchants of the city today went on a boosting trip through neighboring counties in the interest of the coming dollar-day sale. Twenty-two automobiles carried the merchants, with plenty of advertising matter. Ice cream cones were distributed to little ones along the route, and music was furnished by eight pieces of the Citizens Band.

Fourteen events are on the program for the regatta of the Old Dominion Boat Club, which will be staged at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. There are a number of freak contests.

Another bus line will start operations next Tuesday or Wednesday operating between this city, Washington and Mount Vernon. It will be known as the Mount Vernon Jitney association, and will have a fleet of twelve 8-passenger touring cars.
The fare between Alexandria and Washington will be 15 cents each way, and the single trip to Mount Vernon from Alexandria will be 25 cents. W. M. Parks is president of the association.

A Syrian selling laces and other goods called at the residence of Policeman Magner yesterday, according to testimony of the officer in the Police Court today. His call sent him $10, Justice Snow imposing that fine for doing business without a license.

The frame building at the northeast corner of King and Fairfax streets, now used as Steiner's clearing, the oldest building in the city and probably one of the oldest frame structures in the country, is being overhauled by contractors. It is known as the Hamney House, and was erected in 1751.

The body of Corp. Russell Mitchell, of this city, who was killed in France October 16, 1918, while in action, will be buried at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery with military honors. The deceased was a member of the old Alexandria Light Infantry and attended the high school here. Russell Mitchell Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, named in his honor tonight made arrangements to attend the funeral. Members of the Alexandria Light Infantry also plan to attend.

Orlando P. Brooks died suddenly yesterday afternoon at his residence, 2006 Duke street, following a stroke of apoplexy. He was employed as a car repairer at the Potomac yards and was a member of the old Alexandria Light Infantry and attended the high school here. Russell Mitchell Post,
ments to attend the funeral. Mem-
try also plan to attend.

Funeral services for Edward Potter, who dropped dead yesterday while walking on Duke street extended, will take place at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Beulah Baptist Church, Fairfax County. The body is now at the residence of his son, Edward Potter, Jr., 1931 Duke street.

METHODIST PASTOR
MURDERS PRIEST
Shoots Divine Who Married
His Daughter to Catholic.
Claims Self-Defense.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 12.—
The Rev. Edwin R. Stephenson, itinerant Methodist minister, was held in jail here today on charges of murder, following the fatal shooting last night of the Rev.
James E. Coyle, dean of the Catholic Church in North Alabama and pastor of St. Paul's Church in Birmingham.

Mr. Stephenson, in a statement made following his arrest, made it apparent that he will claim self-defense.

Father Coyle was shot to death as he sat on the front porch of the parish house. The minister surrendered immediately. Father Coyle died a few minutes later.

Grief over the fact that his daughter had married a Catholic, the ceremony having been performed yesterday by Father Coyle, was the cause of the shooting, police said today.

Mr. Stephenson, according to statements made both by himself and his wife, had bitterly opposed the desire of his 18-year-old daughter to join the Catholic Church. Yesterday evening, Mrs. Stephenson said, while she and her husband were hunting their daughter, who had not returned home from work, they received a message that she had married Pedro Guzman, a Porto Rican and a Catholic.

Stephenson told police that he was walking past the parish house and saw Father Coyle sitting on the porch.

"He called to me and asked me to sit down," he continued. "We started to talk about my daughter's marriage."

A bitter argument apparently followed and Mr. Stephenson declared "I called him a dirty dog, or words to that effect. He told me not to make the remark. Then I said he was a dirty dog again, and he struck me twice. He ran his hand into his pocket and then I shot."

Forest Students

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 12.— Fried rattlersakes are part of the menu served to Pennsylvania State College forestry students at their camp near Bear Hollow, Clinton County, according to a visitor who has just returned from the camp.

The students are studying wood-craft under Prof. J. A. Ferguson, and "Mother" Jones, who cooks for them, has a menu that includes fried rattlers at least once a week.

The students are instructed how to capture the reptiles alive, and Prof. Ferguson, it is reported, superintends the killing, skinning, and preparation for the frying pan.
The cook declares they make mighty fine eating, tasting like fried eels, which they resemble when cooked.

FEDERAL WORKERS
HEAR REP. KELLY
Tells Government Girls All Classes Must Be Held Together.

"No prayer for the good of America will ever be offered in vain as long as we gather together and talk of our tasks and problems," Representative M. Clyde Kelly, of Pennsylvania, told the girls and guests of the V-W Government Hotels last night at their monthly party.

"The understandings and conclusions which will come out of these common councils will be more valuable than any act of Congress," said Kelly.

"It was this united purpose in the hearts of all Americans that withstood the German attacks and finally drove them to defeat. The world still wants us to be true to our ideals and show the worth of our present trials."

"All classes must be drawn and held together. Unity of purpose, desire, and unified effort to accomplish these objects will carry America beyond all her troubles and bring splendor without shame," concluded Kelly.

Music by Mrs. Beulah Harper Dunwoodie and Miss Cora Gateau completed the program. Miss Bertha Henderson introduced the speaker and the entertainers and Mrs. Emma Anderson, assisted by Erma Beaver, Emma Berner, and Grace Schwinger were the committees in charge of the party.

Several Launch Booms to Succeed Late Rep. James

DANVILLE, Va., Aug. 12.—Considerable speculation is being indulged in here with regard to the vacancy in the Fifth Congressional district through the death of Representative Rorer A. James. Friends of two local Democrats have started booms for them, they being Commonwealth's Attorney John W.
Carter and Judge Edwin J. Harvey, who retired from the Circuit Court bench in 1918 and has since been practicing law here.

Others mentioned as candidates are J. Murray Hooker, Patrick County; State Senator Marshall Booker, Halifax County; Thomas G.
Burch, Martinsville, United States marshal for the western district 12; Dalton Dillard, attorney of Franklin County, and J. Turner Clement, commonwealth's attorney for Pittsylvania County.

It is expected that Governor Davis will call a special election within the next two months to fill the vacancy; also that a convention will be held to determine the nominee. The State Democratic committee will meet on August 30 to elect a temporary chairman to succeed Col. James.

24 AUTOS FOUND IN FLOODED QUARRY

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—Following the discovery of twenty-four automobiles in an abandoned and water-filled quarry near Summit, Ill., the police of Chicago, co-operating with insurance companies, will search every abandoned quarry within twenty miles of Chicago, as well as several places along the lake, the Chicago River, the Desplaines River and the Drainage Canal.

Of the machines located, fifteen were without license plates. The police have been working for some time on a tip that an organized gang had been doing a large business in disposing of insured cars for their owners. For a small sum the cars would be taken away and no trace ever found of them. The owners then proceeded to collect their insurance.

FORTY-FOUR FILE FOR PRIMARIES IN PRINCE GEORGES

Books Close Aug. 19 for Candidates to Be Chosen September 9.

UPPER MARLBORO, Md., Aug.
12.—Up to Tuesday night forty-four aspirants for political offices in Prince Georges County had filed their names for the official ballot of the primaries to be held September 9. The books will close at midnight August 19. Other candidates are still to file for the State senate, house of delegates and State central committee, representing the wing of the Democratic party opposed to the present racetrack situation, an acute issue in the campaign.

There is a stiff fight on between the organization and anti-organization forces of the Republican party.

List of Candidates.
The complete list of candidates filed up to midnight Tuesday is as follows:

Pleasant district; Arthur Keefe, Chillum district; Harry E. Moss, Vansville district; Jacob W. Wachter, a member of the 1920 session of the legislature, of Laurel district, and James E. Lanham, Seat Pleasant district; Democrats, Thomas C. Jones, Marlboro district; Julius E. Coffren, Mellwood district, and James D. Storey, Chillum district.

Nine for Sheriff.
For sheriff—Republicans: Everett E. Pumphrey, Mellwood district; Thomas H. Garrison, Hyattsville district; John F. Wilson, Nottingham district; Democrats, Ber-
